Mamta's hardship

In an unprecedented thing, Trinamul Congress MP from Bengal Dinesh Trivedi resigned from his Rajyasabha membership while speaking in the house itself. RSP chairman Narayan directed him to send his resignation in the writing. Trivedi was former railway minister and his budget had been appreciated widely at that time. He cited the various incidents of violence in his home state and indirectly suggested Mamta Banerjee government was responsible for these incidents. What Trivedi said is hundred percent true. Political violence and West Bengal are deeply co related with each other. When left parties were in power for as many as twenty eight years, there had been huge violence during the time of elections. As the media was under their control and social media was absent, the violence perpetrated by left had gone unnoticed. Now, Mamta Banerjee has been cornered by opposition and she appears to be facing hardship and it will continue. After the exit of Suwendu Adhikari from TMC, the party has lost in a big way both on good will and party work. Innumerable TMC rank and file have been quitting the party and everybody is accusing authoritarian handling of party affairs by chief minister Mamta Didi. TMC is as notorious for serious violence as left parties earlier used to be. People of Bengal are accustomed to such violence. West Bengal has become notorious for all types of violence including killing and attacks on opposition parties. Trivedi has exposed TMC's especially Mamta Didi's handling of explosive situation. Mamta is following footsteps of left parties of pounding on political opponents. Mamta is known for excessive appeasing of Muslims. She is said to oppose the slogan Jai Sriram. Wherever she goes, the slogans of Jai Sriram are chanted by opponents. This makes her more irritated. But she should keep one thing in mind that, the party who opposed Hindu ideology, has not remained in power for long time. Only the left parties are an exception. That too, due to the fact that, in that period, BJP or erstwhile Jansangh was not so much active in politics. Also, Congress and left fights in elections were friendly fights. As Congress leadership was under the influence of left leaders, the election was just a farce. Mamta Banerjee first rocked left bastion. But, her excessive appeasement of Muslims has given birth to BJP's strong emergence in the state. BJP is making much strong inroads in TMC dominated parts of the state that, many leaders, MLAs, MPs and people's representatives of TMC are switching off to BJP. Mamta is making the same blunder once Congress had done. Today, Congress is on the verge of finishing from the country. If Mamta continues to follow Congress footprints, she will also be nowhere after state assembly elections. The Hindu backlash is so strong in the state that, Mamta's intimidating Muslims on the basis of CAA also got failed. Trivedi has exposed all the wrongdoing in Mamta rule. He has said that, he is a feeling of suffocation. Now, Mamta should introspect why her own party leaders are making such allegations on her. If Mamta does not do this experiment, she will have to pay a heavy price. Mamta Banerjee's real test is ahead in assembly polls.
